

ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE

With reference to UGC regulation on "curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Education Institution, 2009". (notified under Section 26 of the UGC Act) make ragging a punishable criminal offense. They legally bind all Indian universities and colleges to implement strict preventative measures, maintain active Anti-Ragging Committees, and mandate affidavits from all students. The P.K. University, Shivpuri (M.P.) has reconstituted the Anti-Ragging Committee.

Ragging is strictly banned in P.K. University. If anybody found indulged in such kind of activities, strict action will be taken irrespective of the extent. Ragging is banned by Supreme Court of India. In order to prevent such kind of activity in campus, an Anti-Ragging Committee has been formed and brought into operation even before the start of 1st year classes by the Head of the Departments.

This committee will have vigil, oversight and patrolling functions. It will be mobile, alert and active at all times and is empowered to periodically inspect places of potential ragging. The committee shall investigate incidents of ragging, make recommendations to the department level Anti-ragging committee and shall work under the overall guidance of the Anti-ragging committee of the University. All members are requested to take note of the same and co-operate in maintaining conducive academic atmosphere for our students both in the University & hostel premises.

Member Appointments: The competent authorities of the University have decided the members of the above said cell.

Tenure of the Member: One Year
